New Local Drama Group Names Heinlein President

Accent Theater of Torrance is the banner under which the newly-formed community drama association here will function, according to H. L. "Hank" Heinlein, newly elected president of the group.

Joe Fazio President Of Drama Group

The association, Heinlein said, will operate as a non-profit group dedicated to the advancement of the dramatic arts in this community.

Other officers of the new organization include Mrs. Paul Harestad, vice-president; Miss Betty Kissler, secretary; and Marion Humphreys, treasurer.

Ed Cattle will act as chairman of the constitution and by-laws committee, which has as members Mrs. Kenneth McVey, Mrs. Jim Wood, and Jack Norris. Mrs. Bonnie McCoy will be special adviser.

In charge of arranging rehearsals and production facilities are Paul Harestad, chairman; Mrs. Marian Davis, Mrs. Coleen Turgeon, and Mrs. Shiela Doolittle.

Room for New Members

"While we are definitely under way, there is still room for as many new members as are interested," Heinlein said. "The chance to become a charter member of Accent Theatre will be available to all persons of this city until our constitution is completed. Even then we shall be expanding constantly."

He urged, however, that would-be members make known their interest no later than Thursday night, March 3, when a second business meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the Civic Auditorium in the conference room of the Chamber of Commerce.

Public announcement of the first production and date of try-outs will be made at this meeting, along with presentation of the first director and producer for the group.

Joe Fazio, popular student at Torrance high school and student body president, was elected president of Torrance Theater Guild, the teen-age drama club of Torrance sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

Dolores McCollum, a graduate of Torrance high school and now attending El Camino college, was elected vice-president. Other officers elected at the meeting were Diane Powers, secretary; Herman Cobrea, treasurer; and Connie Stout, historian.

Castings is continuing for two one-act plays to be presented in June, "The Vallant," and "Sunday Costs Five Pesos," both directed by Louis Bereskin, drama coach.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy J. Cassidy, birth of a son, Timothy Joseph II, of 21028 Shearer Ave., announce the weighing 8 pounds and 9 ounces.
